EVSU bags dance sports championship bid

By ANGELINE B. BARSANA

Dancing with pride and honor, Eastern Visayas State University (EVSU) Eagles outshone 11 other couples in the dance sports competition held last night at the Canuctan Hall, claiming the over-all championship throne in the ball room.

The dancing pairs from EVSU snatched the gold medal in Modern Standard and bagged both the gold and silver medals in the Latin Dance Category. All four dancing pairs of the Eagles made it to the top six.

Marynelle Cacero, one of the winning dancers said that, "I feel so blessed and proud that we're able to win in this competition."

Dances under the Standard category are the Slow waltz, Tango and Quick step while Rumba, Chachacha and Jive fall under the Latin Dance category.

Joana Michelle

Cañete, EVSU's National SCUAA dance sports athlete, felt overwhelmed over the success of the team now that she plays as their cpach.

"I can't express what I am feeling right now, all I can say is that I'm so proud of my athletes," she said.

The winning team will move on to the next step and compete with the other regions on the National level. .

NEWS

EVSU on a good start for SCUAA 2018

BY JAMES WELL M. GORME

Despite of the changing weather condition, Eastern Visayas State University (EVSU) athletes proved that a little rain will not stop their parade to top this year's regional sporting event.

EVSU made a promising start as the first games of the different sporting events in the SCUAA Games unfolded in Borongan City.

The dance sports athletes made a mark in the ball room after bagging the gold and silver medals in the Latin Category and likewise topping the Modern Standard with a gold against the dancing pairs from ESSU.

Moreover, the Eagles successfully earned one gold, one silver and five bronze medals in Karatedo, men and women division.

Today, the track events will hold its final rounds. Also, the Search for Mr. and Ms. SCUAA 2018 will crown the next representatives of the Eastern Visayas Region in the National Pageant.
