Armed with brains, beauty, and elegance, the University of Eastern Philippines couple reigned over one of the most anticipated pageants in the region after stashing the crowns of the Search for Mr. and Ms. SCUAA 2018 last night held at the Canuctan Hall.

As the highlight of this year's festivity, eight dazzling pairs for

Mr. and Ms. SCUAA 2018 competed at their best as they aimed to own the most coveted title.

Ramping with confidence and wit, Ms. Czarina Tomada and Mr. Keith Mathew Camacho from the University of the Eastern Philippines (UEP) took the spotlight, when they were announced as the winning pair for this year.

Ms. Tomada the new Ms. SCUAA 2018, shared her thoughts on how she feels as she wins the crown this year, "I was so overwhelmed and at the same time shocked because I was not expecting the result that the both of us will win."

EVSU's bet Mr. Ritzie John Edsell Maning landed on the first runner-up title with NSU's Skelly Ivy Florida who was last year's Ms. PASUC 8. Ma. Kim Bocao, on the other

EVSU starts securing top places in SCUAA meet '18

By JAMES WELL M. GORME

Eastern Visayas State University Eagles started hunting down their prey as they hungered for the top spot in the different sporting events of this year's Regional State Colleges and Universities Athletic Association (SCUAA) meet.

Lady naiads successfully snatched the silver cup of the swimming competition after securing five (5) gold, five (5) silvers, and four (4) bronze medals in their game held last November 28 at the Liceo del Virbo Divino (LVD).

Eagle Smashers remained undefeated in the Lawn Tennis Men Division, bagging the golden spot in their game held at the DPWH Tennis Club. Their women counterpart, on the other hand, landed on the silver pedestal.

Lyra Llyra B. Arpon, a five-year lawn tennis athlete said, "Win or lose, I'm still happy because our team ranked higher than last year."

Table Tennis Men will compete against LNU today for the semi-finals after losing to VSU yesterday. The Women team, however, will bring home the fourth place in their event after losing to PIT.

Baseball Men and Beach Volleyball Men already lost their bid for the title after suffering successive defeats against PIT and ESSU respectively despite giving it their all.

Today will be the championship game for Sepak Takraw and the continuation of the finals for the track events.

Tae kwon do events will start rolling in today at the Canuctan Hall. ●
