Hard work and determination brought Eastern Visayas State University (EVSU) Eagles more wins from the various sporting events held at Eastern Samar State University (ESSU), Borongan City yesterday.

The vibe in this year's Regional SCUAA meet is becoming more intense as it draws nearer to its end and championship games start to lay down the victors of different sporting events.

Continuing the momentum set by the athletes from the maroon and gold banner yesterday, the Sepak Takraw, Arnis, Athletics and Kyurugi teams bagged another set of victory added to the prestige of the university in this regional athletic event.

The Sepak Takraw team was hailed as over-all champion after stashing the gold medals from last year's champion LNU Blue Jays.

"We've been very happy that we did our best, and our trainings are useful. Our coaches, sports director and the support system of the university was also a great help to us in winning this competition," Mr. Adrian Divino said when asked about his thoughts regarding their victory.

The Arnis team likewise staged a sterling performance after bagging three gold, three silver, and six bronze medals from both the individual and sparring categories.

Moreover, the Athletics Team also fought their hearts out and the women team stashed the over-all championship bid with eight gold, two silver and four bronze medals for the delegation.

Badminton men and women also brought home the bronze for the Eagles while the Chess team managed to grab the silver pedestal.

The university's

National Taekwondo team proved their supremacy in the sparring mat after winning one gold, two silvers and one bronze medals in the Kyurugi category while the Pomsae team won in the individual and mix category.

Meanwhile, the Volleyball, Basketball, Softball and other sporting events will continue to fight for EVSU in their respective tournaments. As of writing, only the Baseball and Beach Volleyball Men lost their championship. ●
